Yugoslav Materials Research Society (Yu-MRS), a non-profit scientific association founded in 1997, promotes multidisciplinary goal-oriented research on materials science and engineering. Its primary purpose is to hold symposia on materials research. Through these symposia Yu-MRS promotes interactions between chemists, physicists, ceramists, metallurgists, polymerists, engineers, etc., who are studying different aspects of a particular materials topic. Membership is open to anyone who has an interest in materials synthesis, processing, characterization and development.
