

Preface

The 2nd International Conference on Civil Engineering, Architecture and Sustainable Infrastructure (ICCEASI2013) was held on July 13-15, 2013 in Zhengzhou, China. As the rising requirement of environmental and natural resources protection to achieve sustainable development, it brings more opportunities to the activities of civil engineering, architecture, hydraulic engineering and sustainable infrastructure. The aim of ICCEASI2013 is to further provide a showcase for recent developments and advancements in these areas, and offer a forum for researchers and engineers in the word to discuss and debate future directions.

This book is a collection of the selected, peer-reviewed papers. All these accepted papers were subjected to strict peer-reviewed at least by 2 expert referees. This book aims to collect the latest development and applications of advanced and sustainable materials, the innovation in civil and hydraulic engineering, the innovation in architecture and building construction, and the innovation in bridge and underground engineering, and the earthquake and seismic engineering. Many new researches are referred to high-performance composite materials, recycled-waste materials and high-performance admixtures for cementitious materials, innovative optimization of efficient structure, design and construction of large-size of hydraulic engineering, effectively utilization and development of water resources, foundation on expansive and soft soils, bridge and tunnel under complex conditions, design of green buildings, sustainable architectural design in urbanization, BIM technology, disaster prevention, and innovative seismic design method.

This issue is the product of the hard work and dedication of the authors. On behalf of the organizing committee of ICCEASI2013, we would like to express our sincere appreciations to all the authors. We are indebted to all the referees for their constructive comments, time and effort. Thanks are also given to Trans Tech Publications for producing this volume.
