

Preface

“The 7th RMUTP International Conference on Science, Technology and Innovation for Sustainable Development: Challenges towards the Green Innovative Society”, took place at The Sukosol, Bangkok, Thailand, June 23-24, 2016.

The Conference served as an outstanding international forum for presentation and discussion of the progress in research, development, standards, and applications of the topics related to Science, Technology and Innovation for Sustainable Development.

The 7th RMUTP International Conference involved the participants into high-quality activities including oral presentation of research results and poster sessions. The activities provided an excellent opportunity for coming together and exchanging new research results and major ideas. Just as important, the event allowed the attendees to experience the taste of Thailand culture in Bangkok. We would like to thank everybody for their participation and contribution.

Sincerely Yours,
