

FAQ E-BOOKS

Does TTP provide the list of eBooks available on www.scientific.net?	The up-to-date list of all published books is here available in .xlsx file. The list provides a header Title List and is generated on the fly.
How is the pricing, single-/multi-user?	TTP Books are priced for single/individual purchasing as well as for organization-wide/multiple uses. Please consult the respective pricing columns H and I.
What format does the eBook have?	Both the eBook and each separate paper in the book can be downloaded in PDF .
Is the resource indexed by discovery tools?	All content is indexed in Ex Libris Primo Central, EBSCO full-text finder, and Google Scholar.
What are the terms of subscription for the eBooks?	For libraries, special packages are available with discount schemes following, e.g., copyright years, subject classifications, or a number of books ordered following a pick-and-choose model.
Do subscribers sign a license agreement?	TTP provides a license agreement for eBook subscribers with multiple concurrent user accounts.
Where can I find the Terms and Conditions?	The Terms and Conditions can be found here .
Is there an option to see the usage statistics and get reports?	The usage statistics will be made available by TTP.
Which COUNTER Compliant statistics does TTP provide?	TTP's usage statistics are COUNTER Compliant BR1 and BR2.
Is the resource available in a mobile version?	Scientific.Net website is built in responsive design. It can be accessed via mobile devices.
Does TTP use any content preservation services?	All TTP content is archived with Portico and CLOCKSS .
Does TTP provide MARC records?	We provide MARC Records in MARC21 format, XML Files, ONIX 2.1, ONIX 3.0, ToC, Cover, JATS, KBART1&2.
We allow the following authentication method:	1) IP Address authentication (IPv4) 2) SSO Authentication (now supported next federations: eduGAIN, OpenAthens, UK Access Management, InCommon, SWAMID, SWITCHaai, and DFN-AAI). SAML protocols: OpenAthens, Shibboleth 3) Authentication by Scientific.NET user login and password

	4) Google Scholar CASA to provide authentication enhancement that improves the authentication for off-campus users of Google Scholar.
Does TTP permit customers to get off-campus access, remote access, and remote access from outpost centers or satellite campuses?	Remote access and off-campus access are allowed for customers under the TTP Terms and Conditions .
Are there any restrictions for simultaneous access?	The License agreement with Trans Tech Publications allows multiple concurrent access.
Are users allowed to share the content with third parties?	Users are allowed to share small amounts of the content according to the TTP Terms and Conditions .
Does TTP use DRM (Digital Rights Management)?	All our data is DRM-free.
Is the resource included in the link resolver knowledge base?	The resource is included in ProQuest Ex Libris SFX, EBSCO full-text finder, and WorldCat OCLC, BrowZine/LibKey (Tirion) (ALMA, 360Core)
Do you offer any special terms for standing orders to the book series <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Foundations of Materials Science and Engineering (FOMSE) • Specialized Collections (SC) • Retrospective Collections (RC) • Scientific Book Collections (SBC) 	It is possible to purchase single eBooks and have a standing order for the series. For more information about the series please click at each series acronym FoMSE, SC, RC and SBC
Where can I find information about the book series <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Foundations of Materials Science and Engineering • Specialized Collections • Retrospective Collections Scientific Book Collections	Please read the dedicated flyer here .
ALL open questions/requests	Please contact subscriptions@scientific.net for more information.